In this case the revocation cannot in any way give rise to requests to the Registry for damages or compensation;
- d) to release the Registry from any responsibility deriving from assignment or use of the domain name on the part of the requesting Organisation;
- e) to accept Italian jurisdiction and the laws of the Italian State.

Information pursuant to Law regarding the protection of personal data (Ex. Order. 30 June 2003, n. 196)

Pursuant to the article 13, parag. 1, Law regarding the protection of personal data, the personal data included in the letter of assumption of responsibility above will be kept on the premises of the Istituto di Informatica e Telematica - Registry of the ccTLD "it" and stored in an automated database and paper filing system for the use of registration, assignment and management of domain names under the ccTLD "it", also in conformity with the technical regulations of the Internet Engineering Task Force – IETF (<http://www.ietf.org>).

In compliance with the contractual regulations of accreditation for the managers of TLD as specified by the Internet Corporation for Assigned Names and Numbers (ICANN) and with the technical regulations of the Internet Engineering Task Force – IETF (<http://www.ietf.org>) the above-mentioned data will, furthermore, be made available to the public via the Internet in relation to the entitlement of the domain name, where assigned, by means of a querying system of the database of assigned domain names.

The giving of these data to the Registry is obligatory for the registration, assignment and management of the domain name requested under the ccTLD "it", and without this data it is not possible to proceed to the registration, assignment and management of the domain name.

With the exception of the consultation of the database of assigned domain names, within the terms and limits established above, the data will be communicated to third parties where these carry out auxiliary activities relative to the management of the contractual relations between the Registry and the MNT, to the protection of rights, to the maintenance of security, for historical or statistical purposes, or in conformity with obligations of law or regulation. The data may also be communicated to third parties who declare their will to act in protection of their own rights towards the Registrant in relation to the registration or use of the domain name.

The data subject has the rights specified in art. 7 of the above-mentioned law, among which there is the right of access, correction and cancellation of data that regard them.

The assertion of the above-mentioned rights can be exercised by means of a request sent to the Istituto di Informatica e Telematica del CNR, Via Giuseppe Moruzzi, 1, I-56124 Pisa, Italy.

The data controller is the CNR, through the Istituto di Informatica e Telematica del CNR, Registry of the ccTLD "it" (<http://www.nic.it>).

Consent for the conservation of personal data

The person concerned, having read the information given above, gives their consent to the collection of data, and memorisation in the DBNA (Data Base of Assigned Names) for operations of registration and maintenance of the domain names within the ccTLD "it", to the communication of these data to third parties that declare their will to act in the protection of their own rights towards the Registrant in relation to the registration or use of the domain name, and to the diffusion via the Internet of the status of the domain name and of the single name and surname associated with the same domain name.

The consent is obligatory, and refusal to give consent does not permit registration of the domain name.
